AUCTARIUM.

Pro explicatione & perfectiore cognitione generum tùm simplicium, tùm compositorum.

De carminum appellationibus.

Carmen appellatur primo a pede crebriore, ut Dactylicum, Iambicum, &c. a Dactylo & Iambo pedibus crebrioribus.

Secundo ab inventore ut Archilochium, ab Archilocho, Sapphicum a Sappho.

Tertio a mensura id est a numero pedum, ut dimetrum, trimetrum, tetrametrum, &c.

Observandum autem est hic, quod in his generibus, Iambico, Trochaico, Anapæstico, pedes bini una mensura, & modo musico per Dipodiam (quæ est duorum pedum in unam dimensionem comprehensio) numerentur: In Pentametro verò & Hexametro sunt singula pedum dimensiones per monopodiam.

Quartò à depositione quæ est finis versus in pedem perfectum desinens, aut in deficientem aut in redundantem.

Huius sunt 4 genera. 1. Acatalectum, cui nihil superest, aut deest: sive, quod ultimum pedem, à quo metrum habet appellationem, servat integrum. 2. Catalecticum, cui syllaba deest. 3. Brachicatalecticum cui deest integer pes. 4. Hypercatalecticum cui superest syllaba aut pes.

Quintò a reversione dicitur Monocolon. quod est unius modi ut Horatius lib. 1. Ode 1. 2. Dicolon distrophon ex duobus generibus Ode 3. 3. Dicolon tristrophon cum post 3. versus duorum generum revertitur, ut Ode 6. Dicolon tetrastrophon, cum post duos versus eiusdem generis, & quartum modi alterius revertitur, ut Horatius lib. 1 Ode 2. Tricolon tetrastrophon, cum post duos eiusdem generis versus, ac tertium, & quartum alterius revertitur ad primum Horatius lib. 1. Ode 5.
